

Assignment and Assumption Agreement

Pursuant to an Asset Purchase Agreement, by and between Charter Communications Properties LLC ("Charter") and between Charter and Astound Broadband, LLC, a Washington limited liability company doing business as Wave, successor in interest to WaveDivision VI, LLC ("Wave") (the "Agreement"), Charter agreed to transfer and assign, under the terms of the Agreement, certain of its cable system assets in a transaction which closed on November 1, 2007 (the "Transaction"), including assignment of that certain Joint Facilities Agreement between Yolo County, California (the "County") and Charter, dated March 22, 2000 (the "Agreement").

The persons executing this Assignment and Assumption Agreement on behalf of the County and Wave affirmatively represent that each have the requisite legal authority to legally bind their respective entities, and acknowledge Wave's assumption of the responsibilities and obligations of the "Provider" under the Agreement from and after the date of closing of the Transaction. The persons executing this Assignment and Assumption Agreement understand that each is relying upon the foregoing statements and representations in acknowledging and accepting this Assignment and Assumption Agreement.
