Resolution No. 22-03

Recognizing Dr. Jonathan London & the UC Davis Center for Regional Change

WHEREAS, the Center for Regional Change (CRC) at the University of California, Davis has served as a catalyst for innovative, collaborative, and action-oriented research since 2007; and

WHEREAS, the CRC brings together faculty and students from different disciplines, and builds bridges between university, policy, advocacy, business, philanthropy and other sectors; and

WHEREAS, the CRC's goal is to support the building of healthy, equitable, prosperous, and sustainable regions in California and beyond; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Jonathan London led the CRC as Founding Director and Faculty Director since its inception until 2021; and

WHEREAS, Dr. London has collaborated with colleagues on campus and in the broader community to build a dynamic and impactful space for social-justice oriented scholars and community partners to collaborate; and

WHEREAS, under Dr. London's leadership, the CRC has helped to inform policy, practice, and advocacy in environmental justice, youth health and well-being, housing, land use and transportation, civic engagement, and many more fields; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Yolo County Board of Supervisors does hereby recognize and commend the Center for Regional Change on its 15-year anniversary and thanks Dr. Jonathan London for his innovation and leadership, as well as his dedication to addressing social, economic, political, and environmental dimensions of sustainability, especially within Yolo County.

PASSED AND ADOPTED this 11th day of January 2022 by the following vote:
