Richard,

This email will confirm that I do not wish to be reappointed to the WCSA Advisory Committee. I have enjoyed my tenure but feel that it is time for new blood on the committee.

Thanks for all of your help over the years.

Hello Julie,

Please withdraw my appointment to the Assessment Appeals Board.
I am unable to commit to this position due to unforeseen family circumstances.
Please accept my apologies

Good morning to you too, Ms. McCoy Dossa!

Thank you for letting us know you received the email and yes, absolutely that timeframe works, as you actually have more time than what we originally stated. Upon further review of Section 1624.01, Training of Members, it notes that newly appointed members of an assessment appeals board shall complete the training described in subdivision (a) of Section 1624.02 prior to the commencement of his or her term on the board or as soon as reasonably possible within one year thereafter (by 1/11/2023). And this is a self-paced training that can be started and resumed at any time. We're very appreciative that you'll be able to serve beginning with the March 23rd hearing.

Please let us know if you have any additional questions. We are also happy to set up a time to meet with you virtually or in person, if you'd like.

Warm regards,

Julie Dachtler, Senior Deputy Clerk

RE: Re - appointment of James Hechtl to the Yolo County Aviation Advisory Committee

I recommend that James Hechtl be re-appointed as the representative from District 4 on the Yolo County Aviation Advisory Committee. Jim brings to the board great perspective of the aviation industry and how it best relates to Yolo County Airport through his position as a senior pilot with Southwest Airlines.

He participates in discussions, is a good listener and approaches high visibility/ conflict issues with solid aviation experience based on fact and regulation.

Thank you for your consideration.
