SUBJECT: RESIGNATION OF WORKFORCE INNOVATION BOARD MEMBER

Good afternoon Ashley,

It was a delight connecting with you last week.

As noted, I am beyond excited to share I have transitioned employment to Yolo Superior Court. Alongside this, I closed out 2021 concluding service to the Woodland Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors.

Please accept this as my formal resignation to the WIB. I am extraordinarily grateful for the opportunity to have served our community alongside so many dedicated and passionate individuals.

I look forward to forging new partnerships and will reach out to Erica after connecting with the Yolo Superior Court Team.

Cheers to new ventures!

Hi Ashley,

Please accept my Resignation from the Yolo county WIB as of Dec 2,2021. I have had too many fluctuations in work load and staffing at the present. I find myself not able to attend the meetings and or keep up on the basic needs of the WIB

Thank you for letting me try my hand at such a board position

Ratify the recommendation of the WIB Executive Committee to approve the subsequent application for Denice Domke to an additional to a four (4) year term on the Workforce Innovation Board.

REASON FOR RECOMMENDED ACTION

Per the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act, the membership must be comprised of the following representatives, Business, Workforce and Labor, Adult Education Literacy, Vocational Rehabilitation, Higher Education, Wagner-Peyser, and Economic Development. Staff to the WIB notified Denice Domke of her expiring term and of the requirement to provide a subsequent application.

Appointment of Board members is based on Workforce Innovation Board (WIB) By-laws, supported by the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. Appointment of Business representative, Denice Domke is based on the Workforce Innovation Board By-law section 3.a) which states, "At least the majority (51%) of the WIB membership must be representatives of business in the local area." Additionally, the term of appointment is based on WIB By-laws which state in section 8. a) "The term of office for each WIB members is four (4) years from the date of appointment by the Board of Supervisors."
