Good Afternoon PRWAC,

We have moved forward with drafting a PRWAC Park Tour Itinerary to visit each of our county park sites with myself, Kevin, and Mike. To ensure compliance with the Brown Act, specifically not creating a quorum, the tours have been split into two groups. Attached you will find the proposed itinerary to get an idea of the time commitments throughout the month of June. Due to rising temperatures and heat, all visits will be conducted in the mornings not to go beyond the early afternoon. At this time, Grasslands date is listed as TBD as we'd like to wait until the biting gnats have gone away.

Given your schedules, please provide feedback on availability based on the dates presented and respond with which group you'd like to sign up for, 1 or 2 on the doodle poll . Due to limitations of Doodle Poll, please refer to the attached itinerary to match dates to site visits. Once we have initial feedback, we will reach out if we need to make any adjustments to the scheduling. We thank you in advance for flexibility. Please reach out with any questions you may have.

Thank you,

Emily Huerta

May 26, 2022

Board Clerk
Yolo County Board of Supervisors

To whom it may concern:

The term of one member of the Reclamation District No. 1600 Board of Trustees expired in 2021. As of the deadline for Nominating Petitions to be filed, the number of petitions submitted did not exceed the number of seats up for election, and so no election was held. Proofs of publication of a Notice of Election and Call for Nominating Petitions and a Notice of No Election are attached.

Nominee and current incumbent Ammy Reyes filed a timely Nominating Petitions and is qualified to serve as Trustee of the District. Pursuant to Water Code § 50742, Reclamation District No. 1600 now respectfully requests that the Board of Supervisors re-appoint her to fill the position of Trustee.

Thank you for your assistance. Please contact me with any questions.

Sincerely,

DOWNEY BRAND LLP
