

2022 LOCAL AGENCY BIENNIAL NOTICE
REQUEST FOR EXEMPTION

In order for your Agency to be exempt from filing a Conflict of Interest Code one of the following exemptions must be met:

- (1) The agency has no "designated employees," within the meaning of Government Code Sections 82019 and 87302(a), including any agency that is a committee, board, commission, or similar multi-member body that:
- (i) Will not acquire real property in the foreseeable future;
 - (ii) Has an annual operating budget, exclusive of salaries, of less than $150,000; and
 - (iii) Does not otherwise possess decision-making authority as defined in Regulation 18700(c)(2).

(2) The agency will be inoperative and nonfunctioning within one year.

(3) Good cause exists for granting an exemption due to extraordinary circumstances that indicate the burden on the agency of adopting a conflict of interest code is not warranted by the degree of likelihood that a conflict of interest may occur.

If one of the above exemptions apply, please complete the following and return to :

Accurate disclosure is essential to monitor whether officials have conflicts of interest and to help ensure public trust in government. The biennial review examines current programs to ensure that the agency's code includes disclosure by those agency officials who make or participate in making governmental decisions.

This agency has reviewed its conflict of interest code and has determined that (check one BOX):

An amendment is required. The following amendments are necessary:

(Check all that apply.)

- Include new positions
- Revise disclosure categories
- Revise the titles of existing positions
- Delete titles of positions that have been abolished and/or positions that no longer make or participate in making governmental decisions
- Other (describe) _____

The code is currently under review by the code reviewing body.

No amendment is required. (If your code is over five years old, amendments may be necessary.)

Our Code establishing this committee repealed in Jan 2021. Committee disbanded

Verification (to be completed if no amendment is required)

This agency's code accurately designates all positions that make or participate in the making of governmental decisions. The disclosure assigned to those positions accurately requires that all investments, business positions, interests in real property, and sources of income that may foreseeably be affected materially by the decisions made by those holding designated positions are reported. The code includes all other provisions required by Government Code Section 87302.
