

Yolo County Board of Supervisors

Resolution No. 25-103

Proclaiming September 9, 2025 as California's 175th Anniversary of Statehood

WHEREAS, California became the 31st state in the Union on September 9, 1850, also known as "Admission Day," and

WHEREAS, California is home to the largest population in the nation with over 39 million people and is the fourth-largest economy in the world, leading the way in agriculture, manufacturing, tourism, science, technology, and entertainment; and

WHEREAS, California's agricultural industry is the most productive in the nation, and Yolo County is proud to contribute to that legacy, serving as one of the state's leading agricultural producers and innovators; and

WHEREAS, California has long been a state of dreamers and doers, whose innovative and collaborative spirit has driven progress in human rights, labor rights, and social justice, and whose resiliency has helped communities heal, rebuild, and thrive through adversity; and

WHEREAS, here, everyone belongs. We celebrate all those who have chosen to pursue the California Dream, all those who are driven by grit, determination, and a relentless belief in what's possible; and

WHEREAS, the Golden State is enriched by its vibrant cultural heritage, including the contributions of Native American tribes who have lived on this land since time immemorial and remain an essential part of California's story; and

WHEREAS, the County of Yolo has played an important role in shaping California's history and continues to embody the values of resilience, innovation, and community that define our great state; and

WHEREAS, September 9, 2025, marks the 175th Anniversary of California's Statehood, a milestone that coincides with the nation's upcoming 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, offering all Californians an opportunity to reflect, celebrate, and engage in building our shared future.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the County of Yolo hereby proclaims September 9, 2025, as California's 175th Anniversary of Statehood and encourages all residents to join in celebrating California's rich history, diverse communities, and contributions to our nation.

PASSED AND ADOPTED this 9th day of September, 2025 by the following vote:

AYES: Allen, Barajas, Villegas, Frerichs, Vixie Sandy.
